

Zurab Dalakishvili

Full-stack Developer

I'm a highly motivated Full-Stack Developer with several years of experience building scalable and performance-optimized web applications. My main tech stack includes React.js, Next.js, Node.js, and PostgreSQL, with strong skills in both frontend and backend development.

I also have experience with TypeORM, Tailwind CSS, Express.js, Cloudflare security tools, and test writing with Jest.

Let's build something amazing together!
